

First United Presbyterian Church
Collinsville, Illinois

Youth Group and Jr. High Scavenger Hunt
September 25 and 26th, 2020.

Rules of the game:

- (1) The Scavenger Hunt will be posted to Facebook at 5pm on Friday the 25th and conclude at 8pm on Saturday the 26th of September. That gives you 27 hours to find all the items.
- (2) The Scavenger Hunt may be done with your “pod.” The people you are spending time with during this pandemic (family, household). A car will probably be needed to get to the various items - bonus points if you ride your bike, but make sure to wear your helmet. :)
- (3) You must take a picture of each location (outside of the location is just fine) AND one person from the pod must be in the picture (It can be a selfie or a group selfie). All of the items are in Collinsville.
- (4) All pictures must be emailed to pastor@fupcoll.org by 8pm on the 26th.
- (5) The team with the most correct answers will get a sweet prize!
- (6) Questions - please email me (Zach) at pastor@fupcoll.org before September 24th.

Clues.

- (1) I was first introduced to the U.S.A. by European traders way back in the late 17th century. Since then I’ve gained a lot of popularity because of my sweet and tangy personality. You can buy me in a variety of shapes and sizes, but you might know me best by my height. I am 170 feet tall.
- (2) I am over 100 years old! During my life I have moved only one time, and I am very happy with my new home. If you stop by for a visit, I hope you do, I might just “Stollen” your heart... and your stomach.
- (3) If you are looking for some fantastic outdoor time, I am where you want to be. You can take a stroll through the woods, pet some furry critters, take in some sights as you swing the afternoon away, and you can stop and smell the roses.

- (4) I was built way back in 1845, so I've been hanging around for a long time. I also held the first Village of Collinsville town meeting. Did I tell you I was built way back in 1845. Oh...sorry to repeat myself.
- (5) I am the first of my kind in Collinsville. I have never moved, not even an inch. Some people who come for a visit walk around, some don't move at all. Others stay for a while to chat and, still, others end up staying for years and years and years. I am a quiet place of rest in peace.
- (6) I am kind of like a bear. I am up and about during the summer and I sleep all winter long. Like a bear, I am playful and fun but if you run around you might end up getting yelled at or worse slipping and falling on your bum. But if done just right you'll slide your way into a whole lot of sun and fun.
- (7) Most people don't like the way I clang, but everyone knows when I'm nearby and that makes me blummed... Anyways, you can always stop by for a meeting or overnight stay.
- (8) I'm new to the neighborhood, but people still chuck little hard saucer-like objects, made of rubber, at me all day long. Usually, they don't hit me with the first toss, but if they do it's one-in-a-million. But who is keeping score, anyway?
- (9) I am something that swirls, swooshes, and agitates. I have helped people all over the world speed up their chores and clean up, too. You aren't looking for me, but where I live permanently. My home is where people procure, care, study, and display objects of lasting interest and value.
- (10) I'd like to say I am busy all week, but the weekend is when most people stop by. They hang out for an hour or so, catch up with friends, have some bread to eat and juice to drink, reflect and think. If you grab a drink here you'll never be thirsty again.
